Whole System Technical Code

The digitalised Whole System Technical Code (WSTC) project has now issued its first consultation to industry which will run until 12 November 2021. The team will be presenting at GCDF the high-level scope of the consultation paper and signposting attendees to additional opportunities to engage with the digitalised WSTC project.

SQSS Review

We are engaging with wider industry on a targeted set of concerns of SQSS to initiate a focused review as part of our RIIIO-2 plan. We invite stakeholders' feedback on the identified issues and any other concerns on the application of SQSS. Together we can update the SQSS to reflect the current energy landscape and meet the net zero ambitions.
