

Grid Code Review Panel Paper

Update on Good Industry Practice for Training Safety Co-ordinators

Introduction

1. The paper GCRP05/09 presented to the May GCRP proposed that a group of Users meet to discuss agree and recommend a Good Industry Practice for Training Safety Co-ordinators.

Progress Report

2. The group has met on 2 separate occasions. There have been representatives from 2 DNOs 2 Transmission Licencees & 27 Power Stations.
3. The final form of the document "Good Industry Practice for Training Safety Co-ordinators" will be complete following the last meeting on the on 21st Sept. 2005.

Publication of the Recommended Training Guide

4. The group wishes the completed guide to be published on the Industry web site.
5. The GCRP are invited to recommend what process would be appropriate to enable the output from the group to published along with other documents relating to the Grid Code.