

EU TSO Engagement (to date)

Date	Who	Discussion points
10th March 22		<ul style="list-style-type: none">• Formal cooperation/ exchange between working group is prohibited/ blocked by Commission post Brexit• Discussed how ramping sits under two frameworks, GB and EU, which is a problem• Discussed reserve exchange post EU Exit• Talked about whether this is a delta MW or a speed of change issue• Discussed the options that GB/ ESO/ WG has discussed so far
June/July 22		<ul style="list-style-type: none">• Meeting postponed
23 August 22	RTE, EirGrid, Norway and ENTSOE represented	<ul style="list-style-type: none">• Addition topics: talked about the need for standard products on all borders• EU TSOs discussed the current approach to ramp management and balancing cross border flows• EU TSOs described the impact of XB flows at different rates on their borders• Share the operational characteristics of the issue and we explain the governance/ development stages of our working group• EU TSO's advised that this would be taken to the ENSTOE working group in early September
September 22	ENTSO-E's Inter-synchronous Area working group	<ul style="list-style-type: none">• Meeting postponed
12 Dec 22	Inter-synchronous Area ENSTO-E Working group (David Whitney) Tennent, RTE, ENTSOE	<ul style="list-style-type: none">• CBAs were discussed, e.g. the assumptions basis such as EU vs GB impact• Timescales for works and coordination on both sides• The importance of transparency and a common understanding on both sides of this issue• ESO shared workgroup material
13 Feb 23	Inter-synchronous Area ENSTO-E Working group	<ul style="list-style-type: none">• EU TSO provided an overview of the work that had been kicked off on review their internal ramping arrangements e.g. Norways consultation on ramping speeds and limits• ESO shared some of the recent workgroup slides and gave an overview of GB recent considerations• Went through consultants engagement slides for transparency (same content as workgroup)• Agree to set up joint meetings after Baringa has completed the GB CBA