

The market was long for most of the day and then alternated overnight. Trades were required for Margin in the morning and evening.

BM Actions managed thermal export constraints in the early morning and overnight. BM Actions and Trades managed thermal import constraints in the South East of England overnight. BM Actions and Trades were required for Voltage Control. BM Actions assisted with System Inertia. The first proving runs were undertaken as part of Winter Contingency Contract.